

FEES FOR ACCREDITATION

The fees listed are the Initial Accreditation Fees and the Continuation Fees for the Accreditation Program:

Option 1 – Lists fees for departments that wish to remit the entire payment upon execution of the Accreditation Agreement;

Option 2 – Lists fees for departments that elect to pay in two installments. The first installment is due upon execution of the Accreditation Agreement. The second installment is due by the end of the 13th month from the effective date of the Accreditation Agreement;

Option 3 – Lists fees for departments that elect to pay in three installments. The first installment is due upon execution of the Accreditation Agreement. The second installment is due by the end of the 13th month from the effective date of the Accreditation Agreement and the third installment is due 12 months later. Included in the fees under Option 3 is the estimated on-site assessment charge;

Continuation Fee – Lists fees for accredited departments, after their initial accreditation. The fee covers the entire 3 year accreditation period. The initial payment is due the first month after initial accreditation. If two installments are paid, the second payment must be received within 12 months of the first.

Note – Fees are based on each country's per capita income as defined by the World Bank Economy List and are payable in U.S. dollars.

Notes:

* Initial Accreditation Fee – The fee schedule applies to Applicants who are Institutional Members of IACLEA at the time the Agreement is executed. Non-members shall add a fee of $1,500 to the first payment.

 Full-Time Equivalents – The institution's full-time equivalent enrollment as reported in the most recent calculation of the U. S. Department of Education's Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS). Institutions outside of the United States should calculate their full-time equivalents as the sum of their full-time fall enrollment plus 1/3 of their part-time enrollment.

 On-Site Assessment Charges – The estimated on-site assessment charge of $6,500 includes assessor compensation, as well as expenses for travel, lodging and meals. Fees may be adjusted based upon current market values.
